Global Connect...

bridges the growing divide between tech leadership & rapid innovation and global policy & their measured implementation. Engage with world leaders in the crime prevention and criminal justice arena during the April 20th-27th 2020 United Nations Crime Congress in Kyoto, Japan.

There, tech leaders upgrade their understanding of their industry's impact on the global community and the international community gets direct access to emerging technologies and industry insights.

2020 UN Crime Congress

The quinquennial United Nations Crime Congress provides a unique opportunity for thought leaders, policy-makers, innovators, diplomats, researchers, industry experts, civil society actors, police, cybersecurity experts, justice officials, and all those addressing crime prevention and criminal justice. Network, connect and upgrade global conversations around the latest emerging challenges to peace, justice and security.

New and renewed relationships are increasingly important in our volatile, uncertain, complex and ambiguous (VUCA) digital twenty-first century.

5 Ways Global Connect will Transform You & 10x Your Business...

These 2 Weeks Will Change Everything!

ACCELERATE

Connect with world-class leaders, diplomats, crime prevention, development and justice experts from 193 countries most with mandates to more effectively fight cyber and transnational organized crime, trafficking of people, wildlife, weapons, drugs, and weapons in their nation. Immersed in this environment and contributing to it, accelerates meaningful change for everyone.

HIGHLIGHT YOUR TECHNOLOGY

Showcasing your technology/approach on the global stage through exhibits, lightning talks and ancillary sessions, chance meetings, sought-out connections gets you connected to those you dreamt your business could serve—the greater good.

IMPACT THE GLOBAL CONVERSATION

Infuse your insights, expertise and perspectives and strategically shape conversations which, at the Crime Congress, can mean making a difference for years. Provide punchy insights through lightning talks, more in-depth perspectives during ancillary session, and tantalize minds over coffee.

STAND OUT

The Crime Congress is not well known by the larger community and this puts the odds in your favor. Quickly take your place on the global stage where diplomats, NGO allies, international organizations such as INTERPOL, EEC, EU, and others are looking for solutions they can use to address transnational organized crime, corruption, and address the increasing world-wide malaise of uncertainty, fear, anxiety, and distrust.

EXPAND YOUR EXPERTISE

Hands-on experience in this global crime prevention and criminal justice environment can help you align your business with global initiatives and agendas such as the Sustainable Development Goals.

Get the exposure you and your business deserve & build partnerships to provide the resources and services our global community needs.

... and before heading home, wander through Kyoto's iconic cherry blossoms!
